

What we need from you

Your page on evenground.org is already drafted from your organisation's own published material. This form is how you confirm it, correct it, and fill the gaps — so the words on the page are yours, not our paraphrase.

8 sections 450–600 words in total 7–9 photographs

Most of it already exists in your annual report

How this works

Every partner page uses the same eight sections in the same order, so the five pages read as one family. You'll receive this form with the current draft text already filled into each field, plus a link to your draft page.

1. Read each field. If the draft is accurate, leave it.
2. If it's wrong, out of date, or not how you'd put it — replace it.
3. Send the photographs, which are the part we can't draft for you.

Word counts are the real measurements from the pages already built. They're targets rather than limits, but something three times the length won't fit the design and will come back to you for cutting.

§1

Header

The first thing a visitor reads, and the facts that place you.

Organisation name	Exactly as it should appear in print	—
Tagline	One line: what your organisation is for. A plain description, not a slogan	10–20 words
Location	Community and province, as a stranger would place it	short
Founded	Year your organisation began	4 digits
Partner since	Year Even Ground's support began	4 digits
Focus	Three or four keywords for your areas of work	3–4 terms

Live example — Thanda: “Holistic, rural childhood development in KwaZulu-Natal: from early learning to youth leadership.”

Location: KwaNzimakwe, KwaZulu-Natal · Focus: ECD · Nutrition · Literacy · Farming

§2

Four numbers

Four headline figures with short labels. They count up as the visitor scrolls, which sets two rules.

- One number each, and a whole one. A plain figure, optionally with + or %. Not a range, not "approx.", not a sentence.
- Say what period it covers. "Meals served yearly", "books borrowed in 2024" — a number without a timeframe can't be checked, and we won't publish one.
- Three is fine if a fourth would be padding. Never more than four.

1.	Number: _____	Label: _____	Period: _____
2.	Number: _____	Label: _____	Period: _____
3.	Number: _____	Label: _____	Period: _____
4.	Number: _____	Label: _____	Period: _____

One of the four is usually the relationship itself — "16 · Years of Even Ground partnership". We can fill that one in.

§3

Opening statement

The single idea your page argues, and one paragraph establishing it.

Headline	The one idea, stated flatly	4–8 words
Lead paragraph	Who you serve, where, and the shape of your approach	20–40 words

Live headlines: "Inclusion begins before school does" · "Smart with heart" · "Equality of opportunity begins with the classroom"

§4

The fuller story

Two paragraphs. This is the only place on the page with room to explain rather than summarise.

How you got here	What you set out to do, and what changed as the work matured	25–60 words
What you run now	Your programmes as one list-like sentence, so the reader knows the scope before §5 breaks it down	25–60 words

§5

Programmes

Between two and five. Fewer, described well, reads far better than more listed thinly.

Programme 1
Name:	_____	(2–5 words)
Who it serves:	_____	(ages or group)
What happens:	_____	(15–35 words)
Programme 2
Name:	_____
Who it serves:	_____
What happens:	_____

EVEN GROUND WRITES

A closing card ties the programmes together — how one child or family moves between them. Nothing needed from you, though a sentence on how they connect helps if the answer isn't obvious from the list.

§6

Photographs

Seven to nine images. This is what most affects how the page feels, and the part most often under-supplied.

SLOT	HOW MANY	ORIENTATION	MINIMUM SIZE
Hero — one strong image, people foremost	1	Landscape, 3:2	1500px wide
Gallery — the work as it actually looks	6–8	Mostly landscape; one or two portrait is good	1400px long edge

- People, mid-activity. Learning, farming, teaching, playing. Not posed rows, not empty buildings, not your logo.
- Variety across the set. One wide establishing shot, some close, at least one adult and child together, at least one of the physical place.
- Originals, not exports. Straight off the camera or phone. No text, watermark, date stamp or filter — the site applies its own treatment.

For each image

Filename: _____
What's happening / who: _____ (becomes the alt text)
Photographer credit: _____ (if one is required)
Consent on file: yes / no

Any photograph of an identifiable child needs consent on file. If that's unclear for an image, leave it out and send another. A page is excellent with six photographs and cannot be published with one we're unsure of.

§7

Even Ground's role EVEN GROUND WRITES

Nothing needed from you. It's here so you can see what will appear on your page and object if any of it is wrong.

This section states how long our support has run, whether it's unrestricted, whether it's multi-year, and what non-financial support goes alongside it.

Please do confirm two things: the year our partnership began, and that the funding is described accurately.

§8

A story from your work OPTIONAL — BUT WANTED

Four of the five pages carry one, and it's consistently the part visitors remember.

Name	As they wish to be credited	—
Their story	Where they started, what changed, where they are now	70–80 words
How your programmes made it possible	The pathway, plainly told	50–60 words
A photograph of them	Portrait or environmental	≥1200px
Written consent	Covering use of their name and photograph	required

Write it as you'd tell a colleague. Specifics beat adjectives: what she grows, how far he walks, what the family eats now.
